

Review of the Symposium “Archaeology in Jiangsu’s Thirteenth Five-Year Plan”

Jiangsu Provincial Institute of Archaeology

Abstract: The symposium “Archaeology in Jiangsu’s Thirteenth Five-Year Plan” was held in Jiangnan Archaeological Work Station on May 16, 2015. Participants discussed the archaeological work plans during Jiangsu’s Thirteenth Five-Year Plan and worked out a direction to which Jiangsu’s archaeological cause shall follow in the next five years. Each archaeological institutions of the municipal level reviewed its current work and presented the work plans according to the specific situations. Proposed suggestions included to conduct an archaeological survey throughout the province, to share archaeological achievements, to advance the informatization and infrastructure construction, to carry out research projects representing Jiangsu’s characteristics and to promote public archaeology. This symposium is believed to play a positive role in promoting the future development of archaeology in Jiangsu.
